

1.9.14 Travel Insurance

Going on holiday can be really expensive, particularly if you take out insurance to cover healthcare costs relating to bipolar. Here are contact details for a few insurance companies that might offer you a decent deal - informal feedback says good things about Freedom, Insurancewith, Eurotunnel and World First but we can't guarantee this. As always, our advice is... shop around until you get the possible deal... you sometimes get the best quotes online... and don't be afraid to haggle!!
